Key questions defining research program:

- Improving aspects of the internal medicine clerkship
- Early clinical exposures for medical students
- Teaching evidence based medicine skills
- Curricula on pain management issues

Key words describing research program:

- Medical education research
- Clinical curriculum development and evaluation